If you work, please tell us what you do

Please tell us why you would like to be a Parish Councillor. (Don't worry if you are not sure what a Parish Councillor does – simply tell us what it is about the role that appeals to you).	I would like to be a Parish Councillor because I would like to make a valuable contribution to our community. I would like to be involved in shaping the way in which this village develops over the coming years, respecting its past history and its future aspirations.
Please tell us why you think you would make a good Parish Councillor. You can include any skills you have; any previous experience as a Parish Councillor or in Local Government; any experience in the private sector that you think would be useful. Tell us anything you think is relevant, to help us consider your application	My experience in life and as a professional teacher means that I have developed the skills of objectivity, detachment, and an ability to take an unprejudiced point of view on a comprehensive range of subjects. At the same time my professional life has allowed me to develop my skills of empathy and understanding. I feel these are essential attributes in the work of the Parish Council as decisions made by the Council affect both the individuals within the community and the community of the wider area itself. I have good communication skills and believe strongly in equality, diversity, and inclusion.
